#2017-44 - Consideration of Approving Agreement with the Central Nebraska Humane Society

Council Agenda Memo

From: Jerry Janulewicz, City Attorney

Meeting: February 14, 2017

Subject: Animal Control Agreement with the Central Nebraska Humane Society

Presenter(s): Jerry Janulewicz, City Attorney

Background

The City of Grand Island and Central Nebraska Humane Society (CNHS) previously entered into an agreement for CNHS to provide Animal Control and Pet Licensing services for the City. By its terms, this agreement expired at midnight on October 31, 2016. On October 25, 2016, Council approved a proposed agreement for animal control services with CNHS for a one-year term, with automatic annual renewals unless either party gave notice on non-renewal. However, the agreement approved by Council on October 25 was not approved by the CNHS Board of Directors. Following notice that CNHS did not approve the agreement, City's legal staff engaged in negotiations with CNHS, represented by its Director and a lawyer-board member, resulting in the agreement now before Council.

The proposed agreement does not change the basic structure of the agreement approved by Council in October. The services provided and the consideration for those services remain the same. During negotiations, changes were made throughout the agreement previously approved by Council. The majority of those changes were of a grammatical or stylistic nature. Substantive changes include:

- Provide a mechanism for changes in office hours and approval of changes by the City;
- Substitute quarterly activity reports to the City in place of annual reports;
- Change observed holidays by deleting Labor Day and Veterans Day and adding Easter Sunday;
- Delete requirement that CNHS provide the City with copies of complaints it receives;
- Revise references to Central District Health Department to conform to current sharing of information between CNHS and the health department;
- Additional insurance requirements;
- Provide for the City's obligation to maintain, to the extent provided by law, the confidentiality of CNHS' annual audit;

- Expressly state that animal control officers are employees of CNHS, which is responsible for providing proper training of its employees;
- Provide for mutual indemnification obligation of the parties; and
- Provide express language to the effect that CNHS, in performing its duties under the agreement, is performing traditional governmental functions.

Historically, the agreements between the City and CNHS required CNHS's policies be attached to the agreement as exhibits. CNHS's board and administration were concerned the exhibits attached to the prior agreements were poorly written and did not accurately express current policies and procedures. The process of updating its written policies and procedures appears to have been the cause for some of the delay in finalizing negotiations of the currently proposed agreement. CNHS's recently revised policies and procedures are attachments to the agreement.

Discussion

City Administration and CNHS have reached a mutual agreement, subject to Council approval. CNHS will continue to provide Animal Control services for the City.

The proposed agreement is a yearly agreement with automatic renewals, but may be terminated by either party upon 90 days' notice. The agreement price is a flat fee of $370,000.00 paid in monthly payments. CNHS will continue to enforce City Code as it pertains to animals. CNHS will continue to license pets, but the City will be responsible for distributing licenses to and collecting license fees from area veterinarians.

As was provided in the agreement approved by Council in October 2016, CNHS will provide two animal control officers employed full-time along with one vehicle. The Priority One calls remain modified to reduce the number of after-hours call-outs.

Alternatives

It appears that the Council has the following alternatives concerning the issue at hand. The Council may:

1. Move to approve
2. Move to deny

Recommendation

City Administration recommends that the Council approve the agreement with the Central Nebraska Humane Society.

Sample Motion

Move to approve the agreement with the Central Nebraska Humane Society.
