Council Agenda Memo

From: Todd McCoy, Parks and Recreation Director

Meeting: September 10, 2019

Subject: Purchase of Seven (7) 500E ATA Trap Machines with Wobble Options for the Heartland Public Shooting Park

Presenter(s): Todd McCoy, Parks and Recreation Director

Background

On August 14, 2019 one bid was received for Seven (7) 500E ATA Trap Machines with Wobble Options for the Heartland Public Shooting Park. The bid was $9,160.00 over the estimate. On August 19, 2019 the Parks and Recreation Department re-bid the trap machines for the Heartland Public Shooting Park.

The majority of the existing machines are from the original range fifteen years ago. The new machines will provide increased reliability which is essential during regional and national events.

Discussion

MCS Trap of Smithville, Missouri submitted the only bid to provide and install seven (7) 500E ATA commercial grade clay target trap machines with wobble option.

Staff recommends accepting the bid from MCS Trap in the amount of $44,015.00. The purchase will be funded by the capital equipment account 41044401-85615.
