Occasionally during the Summer Reading program or other library programming some children may be included in pictures that might be used by the newspaper, television, or library generated videos for publicity. Since these pictures personally identify our children, you may have concerns about the publication of such pictures. If you do NOT wish to have your child's picture included in this kind of publication, please fill out the form below.

If we do NOT receive a signed form from you, we will assume that you have no objection to having your child's picture included in this kind of publicity.

I do not wish to have _____'s picture included in any form of library publicity such as the newspaper, television or library-generated videos.
