On 6/12/13, I received a copy of a "Change of location" application involving Los Dos Hermanos. According to the application, Los Dos Hermanos wants to move its liquor license to 413 W. 4th which is the old El Trancaso building. The licensed establishment will be called San Miguel Bar & Grill. Maria Rico is the owner of Los Dos Hermanos and San Miguel.

On 6/12/13, I spoke to Maria Rico at Los Dos Hermanos. Maria advised that she is going to keep Los Dos Hermanos open. She just won't be able to sell alcoholic beverages there unless she gets a new license. She also said that San Miguel is going to be a bar, not a restaurant. I asked her why she called it a bar and grill. Maria said the location has always had a bar and grill in the name and thought she had to be consistent. Maria said she spoke to Mary at the NLCC who advised her how to do the paperwork.

Maria plans on having two bouncers at the bar, and the side door will only open from the inside. She also showed me a metal detector wand that she plans on using on the customers before they enter the bar. Maria made it very clear that she won't tolerate drunk and obnoxious people in her bar and will cooperate with law enforcement.

I did a liquor license investigation on Maria and Los Dos Hermanos one year ago. While there were some issues with the application, Maria had a clean record, and a license was issued. She hasn't had any liquor violations at Los Dos Hermanos. On 6/14/13, I spoke to Mary at the NLCC. She was fully aware of the change of location request and had personally spoken to Maria. Mary advised that Maria told her from the beginning that San Miguel is going to be a bar. It appears that Maria followed the directions of the NLCC when she filled out the change of location request. I checked Maria again through NCJIS and Spillman. She has nothing new on her record.

All in all, Maria already has a liquor license. While she is changing the nature of the business associated with the license, she is not changing the classification of the license. Maria has nothing new on her record, followed the advice of the NLCC, and seems to have a strong desire to run a respectable establishment. The Grand Island Police Department has no objection to the change of location for Maria's liquor license.
