I received a copy of a liquor manager application from Kathleen Stock for Red Lobster. Kathleen has lived in Omaha the last nine years. She has a husband named Douglas who signed a Spousal Affidavit of Non-Participation agreement. Kathleen stated on her application that she has been in the restaurant business for twenty-seven years and has been approved as a liquor manager at a different Red Lobster years ago.

Kathleen disclosed a conviction in 1989 for leaving the scene of an accident. She also disclosed a speeding conviction in Illinois in 2002. I checked Spillman and NCJIS for records relating to Kathleen. She doesn't have an entry in Spillman, and she doesn't have any convictions listed in NCJIS. Kathleen has a valid Nebraska driver's license and no warrants for her arrest. I also checked on Kathleen through a law enforcement-only Internet database and didn't find anything detrimental to her application.

I called Kathleen on 8/22/13. She advised that she lives in Omaha and had just left Red Lobster in Grand Island. Kathleen said that she oversees several restaurants but hopes to be able to come to Grand Island every couple of weeks until Red Lobster can find a different liquor manager. She has another local employee in mind.

Kathleen Stock doesn't have any recent convictions in Nebraska and didn't fail to disclose any convictions. The Grand Island Police Department doesn't have any objections to her becoming the liquor manager at Red Lobster.
