Council Session

Item C1

Proclamation "Community Development Week" April 12-18, 2004

Because Nebraska's communities and neighborhoods are the foundation for providing a high quality of life for its residents and the City of Grand Island has actively supported Community Development activities, the Mayor has proclaimed the week of April 12-18, 2004 as "Community Development Week" and encourages all citizens to support activities during this week and throughout the year by building strong individuals, proud families, and vibrant communities. See attached PROCLAMATION.
