

City of Grand Island

Tuesday, May 24, 2005

Council Session

Item C2

Recognition of Louis Kaelin and Coach Jack Ross for Outstanding Performance at the Cornhusker Trapshoot

The Mayor and City Council would like to congratulate and recognize Louis Kaelin and his Coach Jack Ross. Louis received 1st Place in the Cornhusker Trapshoot Junior Division Competition held in Doniphan. Louis competed against 455 7th and 8th grade students throughout Nebraska and broke 99 of 100 16-yard single targets to post the highest score. This is the biggest youth shoot in the world with a total of 1,536 students from 7th to 12th grades. We would like to thank Jack Ross for his dedication and knowledge in teaching our youth the proper shooting techniques.

Staff Contact: Mayor Vavricek

Certificate of Recognition

Awarded to

“Louis Kaelin”

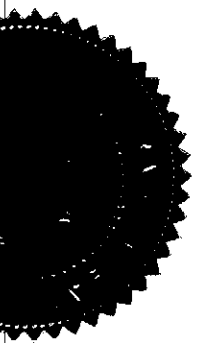

for receiving 1st Place in the
Cornhusker Trapshoot Junior Division Competition.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jay Vavricek".

Mayor, Jay Vavricek

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ranae Edwards".

City Clerk, Ranae Edwards

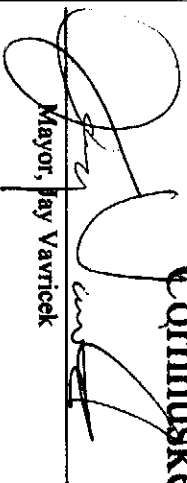

Certificate of Recognition

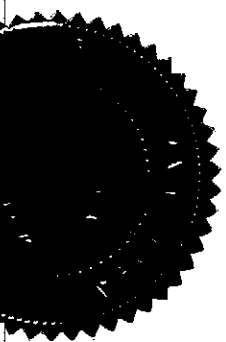

Awarded to

“Jack Ross”

Coach for the

Cornhusker Trapshoot Junior Division Competition.

Mayor, Jay Vavricek

City Clerk, Ranae Edwards