In looking at this application, it states that Kristine and her husband, Joseph, have only lived continually in Grand Island since approximately the beginning of this year. Prior to that, they lived in Grand Island in 2004. Otherwise, they have lived in Guam, Florida, Washington and Ogallala, Nebraska.

I searched for Kristine and Joseph in Spillman. I located Joseph but not Kristine. Joseph had an entry for a DUI which he had disclosed on the application. I searched NCJIS for both of them. Kristine didn't have any undisclosed convictions, nor did Joseph.

I called the Clay County Florida Sheriff's Department which has jurisdiction over Middleburg, Florida and asked for a records check on the Lange's. They did not have any contacts with the Lange's. I also called the Everett, Washington Police Department and spoke to someone in their records department. They didn't have any contacts with the Lange's. The last agency I called was the Ogallala, Nebraska Police Department. They did not show any records on the Lange's. The Lange's also stated that they lived in Guam for a couple of years. I did not call Guam. I also checked for warrants and driver's license history and status on the Lange's. They each have a valid Nebraska license, no warrants, and a prior license in Florida.

In summary, I could not find any undisclosed convictions on the Lange's based on the information they provided. Since Joseph signed a Spousal Affidavit of Non-Participation and his conviction isn't automatically disqualifying, the Grand Island Police Department has no objection to Kristine Lange becoming the liquor manager at Bullwinkle's.
