Item C3

Proclamation "Public Health Month" April, 2008

Public health services benefit all Nebraskans, regardless of age, culture or race. It is important that we do not take public health for granted and that we recognize the need to maintain and improve our current public health efforts. Mayor Hornady has proclaimed the month of April, 2008 as "Public Health Month" in the City of Grand Island. See attached PROCLAMATION.

THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
City of Grand Island
State of Nebraska

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Nebraskans have achieved almost 30 additional years of life expectancy since 1900; and
- WHEREAS, public health efforts are credited with the majority of improvements in our health status and expanded life expectancy; and
- WHEREAS, public health succeeds by identifying and addressing patterns of disease, illness and injury in populations; and
- WHEREAS, public health is about ensuring healthy living and working environments; and
- WHEREAS, public health efforts protect against bioterrorism and new and emerging public health threats; and
- WHEREAS, public health measures such as controlling the spread of disease, maintaining safe food and drinking water, and providing maternal and child health services, have prevented countless deaths and improved our quality of life; and
- WHEREAS, public health services benefit all Nebraskans, regardless of age, culture or race; and
- WHEREAS, public health services result in healthy Nebraskans in healthy communities; and
- WHEREAS, it is important that we do not take public health for granted and that we recognize the need to maintain and improve our current public health efforts.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Margaret Hornady, Mayor of the City of Grand Island, Nebraska, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 2008 as in the City of Grand Island.

“PUBLIC HEALTH MONTH”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Grand Island to be affixed this eighth day of April in the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Eight.
