ARTICLE VI GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

An alleged grievance arising from an employee shall be handled in the following manner:

A grievance for the purpose of this Contract refers to the question of the interpretation, application, and meaning of the terms of the labor agreement between the City and the Union.

In reducing a grievance to writing, the following information must be stated with reasonable clearness:

1. The exact nature of the grievance;
2. The act or acts of commission or omission;
3. The time and place of the act of commission or omission;
4. The identity of the party or parties who claim to be aggrieved;
5. The provisions of the contract that are alleged to have been violated;
6. The remedy which is sought.

In the event that a satisfactory settlement is not or cannot be reached after the matter has been informally raised with the immediate supervisor, the following procedure shall be used in the submission of a grievance:

- Step 1 Any employee who believes that he/she has a justifiable request or grievance shall discuss the request or complaint within five (5) calendar days with the Police Chief, with or without the Union representative being present, as the employee may elect, in an attempt to settle same. However, if a grievance or request has not been satisfactorily resolved in step one, it must be presented in writing and processed in step two, if the Union representative determines that it constitutes a meritorious grievance. A grievance to be considered beyond step one must be filed in writing with the Police Chief.
- Step 2 If the grievance is not settled to the satisfaction of the employee, he/she and/or the designated representative shall present it to the Police Chief in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the receipt of the decision of the Police Chief in step one. General All grievances shall be presented by the employee in person. The employee shall not be paid for any time used to present a grievance. An employee must obtain the permission of the immediate supervisor before leaving the job to present a grievance. None of the above precludes the possibility of meetings at any step of the grievance procedure among the parties involved to discuss the issues and to attempt to settle them at that step.

Nothing in the foregoing provisions shall be construed to apply to the extent, if any, that such provisions may become in conflict with a duly enacted statute of the state or a decision of the court of competent jurisdiction.
