DESCRIBE WHAT HAPPENED: Matt went to work and when he arrived home the tree - in a tree ring had been cut down. He called the city and asked who took his tree. He was told they thought it was dead. The tree was not dead as evidenced by the Stump. Red Buds do not get leaves until after they bud and in very rainy or odd weather conditions they can bud late.

Someone from the City told Matt "I guess we owe you a tree." However he never heard back. The New Owner WANTS the tree.
